Wood for Sale.

I will sell wood, as good, and even better, than any in Carson, two-thirds red fir limbs, and one-third split yellow-pine (mixed) at $7 per cord. A reduction of fifty cents will be allowed to parties taking five cords or more at one time. I have also a quantity of nut-pine and cedar, which I will sell at proportionately low figures. Terms strictly cash on delivery. D. CIRCE.

Croup—Ammen's Cough Syrup.

Ammen's Cough Syrup is not a patent medicine. No patent has ever been asked for or been obtained upon it. To protect the public from counterfeits and imitations the manufacturer had the label registered at Washington. The Syrup is from pure and costly drugs, and cannot be sold as cheap to the dealer as the common patent medicines that are simply made to sell, which explains why dishonest druggists or dealers try to sell you something else when asked for Ammen's Cough Syrup. It is upon the market upon its own merits. You can buy a sample bottle for 15 cts., upon which, at the wholesale price the manufacturer makes nothing. Ask to see a large bottle, and read the label.

Dr. G. Haas, of San Francisco, Surgeon Dentist (graduate of New York College of Dentistry) will be in Carson on or about the 27th instant. Parties contemplating having dentistry done will do well to wait until said gentleman arrives. The Doctor visits patients at their residence, his workmanship is unexcelled and charges reasonable. He will be at the Ormsby House, where all orders can be left. oc-29

M. W. Hodkins, at the Glove Depot, opposite the Arlington House, has just received a large and fine stock of gloves and mitts for gents, ladies and children of the latest styles. Best assortment and lowest prices in the State. Hand-sewed buck gloves a specialty. Also, men's buckskin underwear, socks, suspenders, etc. od-1m*

A raffle for a Kennedy improved rifle, 44 caliber, C. T. 24 inches, octo barrel, will be disposed of at the Hole-in-the-Wall (Opera House) on Friday evening, November 10, at 8 o'clock. Fifty tickets, at $1 each. Box-sheet now open. Come one, come all, and try the dice at the Hole-in-the-Wall. Bang! n1-td

Lost, while returning from the Lake, on the King's Canyon road, a satchel with the name of C. E. Laughton inscribed thereon. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning the same to C. E. Laughton, at the V. & T. Railroad office. n1-ti

THE RICHMOND-ALBION.

The arguments before the Supreme Court in the Richmond-Albion case closed yesterday. The arguments of Messrs. Clarke and Stewart occupied the Court. At the conclusion of Mr. Stewart's remarks Mr. Wren asked that thirty-five days be allowed in which to file briefs. He had important business which called him East, and the time asked for was necessary. Mr. Stewart thought that thirty-five days was too long a time, as the case had been gone over pretty well by counsel. The gentleman himself (Mr. Wren) had exceeded him in point of time in argument. Mr. Wren, glancing at the clock, acknowledged that he had hung on just a half hour longer than the honorable ex-Senator, but that that gentleman had taken good care to have his associates make it up. The Court reminded counsel that where there had been so much oral argument the shorter the time occupied in preparing briefs would be desirable. The Court, however, allowed the time asked by Mr. Wren, with ten days additional to reply.

Incorporations.

The following articles of incorporation were yesterday filed in the office of the Secretary of State:

Comstock Prospecting Co.; capital stock, $100,000. Directors—Conant B. Brierly, G. J. Specht, Robert Rowland, Peter R. Savage, C. C. Thomas, Thomas Barton, H. H. Sheldon. Principal place of business, Sutro, Lyon county, Nevada. Incorporated for the purpose of doing a general mining, milling, ditching and draining business in the Territory of New Mexico.

Pacific Mining Agency; capital stock, $100,000. Directors—Thomas H. Wells, W. A. Murphey, J. B. Hickey, J. Heidy. Principal place of business, Aurora, Esmeralda county, Nevada. Incorporated for the purpose of doing a general mining, milling, ditching, etc., business in Esmeralda county.

Trial Jurors.

The following trial jurors have been summoned to appear before the United States Circuit Court to-morrow morning: J. A. Hoover, H. S. Fuller, F. Boskowitz, J. P. Smith, John Munson, W. D. Lawrence, W. Cossier, J. Coleman, Geo. S. Grier, David Lachman, W. B. Ryan, D. M. Holland, R. P. Chapin, Moritz Cohn, W. H. Thompson, R. H. Charles, C. P. Hall, S. M. Davidson, C. S. King, James Tombs, J. P. Newland, Jacob Klein, John Rapp, E. H. McClure, Isaac Harris, C. F. Brant, W. M. Little, Geo. W. Thacher, J. P. Foulks, G. A. Crall, E. P. Lovejoy, Edward Babcock, A. W. Swan, W. H. Blauvelt, D. I. Jones, C. C. Clark.

Didn't Like the Fun.

Yesterday morning two hilarious Indians were amusing themselves by firing a shotgun in all directions, in the rear of the Morton House. Antone Borges went out to remonstrate with them when the fowling piece was levelled at him. Appreciating his danger he grappled with the Indian who held the gun and succeeded in wresting it from his grasp. At this juncture of the fracas the Indians made a break for the western part of the city, and at last accounts had not been apprehended. Borges took the gun to the Sheriff's office, where it now remains. oc-29

Commissions.

The following commissions were yesterday issued from the Governor's office: C. G. Hubbard, Notary Public, to reside at Eureka; E. B. Cushman, Notary Public, to reside at Candelaria; F. H. Carlton, Commissioner of Deeds, to reside at Minneapolis, Minn.; C. Wheat, Commissioner of Deeds, to reside at San Francisco; R. R. Enquist, Commissioner of Deeds, to reside at San Francisco.

No Lack of Faith.

H. M. Levy, the mining man, evidently has faith in the cause of the Albion. He was in attendance at the Supreme Court yesterday while the case was being argued. Afterwards while in conversation with some parties he authorized a friend to put up $1,000 that the Albion would win the suit. Some style about Levy.

Something New.

It is said about town that the women are spending all the money this month. This should give the dry goods stores a boom.—Enterprise.

IN BRIEF.

Ex-Senator W. R. King is in the city. Indians are now bringing venison to town.

Ah Hing, the Chinese petty larcenist, was yesterday discharged from custody, because the prosecuting witness, Whistling Dick, would not testify against him. There's a fellow feeling that makes us wonderous kind.

Death of Lev Duncan.

J. G. Chesley received a dispatch last night from Sheriff Thomas of Austin, containing the sad news of the death of Lev Duncan, County Assessor of Lander county. Mr. Duncan was in Carson a few weeks ago, enjoying the best of health. The dispatch states that he died of inflammation of the bowels, and that his remains would be taken to San Francisco for burial.

Not a Success.

The pulverizing barrel for reducing ores, imported from the East by the Voltaire Mining Company, has proven a failure, and the company will, in place, get a 10-stamp battery from Virginia. This will retard active operations for about two weeks.

Lillianfield is closing out his stock at remarkably low figures.

The Opera House.

Seats are being rapidly taken for the Sheridan performance at the Opera House on the evenings of the 14th and 15th. On the opening night "King Lear" will be performed, and the second night "Louis XI." It will be a long time before our theater-goers will again have an opportunity of witnessing so finished an actor as Mr. Sheridan. His support will be of the best, the Baldwin Theater Company of San Francisco.

CONFEDERATE BONDS.

Salt Lake as a Manufacturing Centre for Them.

A recent article in the Philadelphia Record, relative to the sudden appreciation of Confederate bonds in the European market, contains the following paragraph:

"Recently one of the agents authorized to purchase Confederate bonds, received a package from Salt Lake City containing one half a million of Confederate money. He stated to a reporter that they came from an ex-Confederate army officer in Salt Lake, and that he expected more from the same quarter shortly."

For some days past there has been a rumor about the streets that there was a man in this city manufacturing the bonds. Yesterday a Tribune reporter was told where he would find a man who for months past had been engaged in running a sort of Confederate bond factory. His place was found on East Temple street, and when the reporter called and asked him about the bonds he denied knowing anything about them. Later in the day the reporter called with his informant and the latter told the bond man to talk freely.

The bond man, whose name was Felix Payton, gave the following account of the transaction:

About a year ago, a man called upon me with the plates of some Confederate bonds and told me they had been captured with some Rebel stores after Lee's surrender. He said that he had kept them ever since as souvenirs of the war, and that now there was a large demand all over the country for the money to sell to curiosity seekers, he said he would like me to print new notes from the plates and send them to him in Chicago. He agreed to pay me five dollars for every thousand impressions, irrespective of the denomination of the notes. I printed a good many thousand of the bills, of various denominations, from ten dollars to one hundred. I never printed any one thousand dollar notes, and I never heard of any such Confederate bonds. When I heard that the bonds were selling in Europe and the East for two dollars a thousand, I concluded that some of the notes I was making were finding their way into the market. I am not making any more. I have not made any for a month.

The reporter examined the plates which Payton claimed had been given him as the genuine plates captured after Lee's surrender. The plates were made of ordinary rabbit-metal, type high, and at one end bore the stamp: "Marder, Luse & Co., San Francisco, 1880." The firm of Marder, Luse & Co. are manufacturers of type, printers' material, etc., and the rabbit-metal from which these plates were made must have reached Salt Lake pretty recently. While Payton claimed not to have made any notes for a month, the ink on the plates was not dry, and a pile of fresh notes lay behind a pile of books on the table, still damp with fresh ink. There was a second package about six inches square on the table, ready for the express office, marked John S. Middleton, 136 Greenwald street, Philadelphia.

It is quite evident that the man is engaged in the manufacture of Confederate notes, and is unloading on the European market. As the original bonds are not recognized, there can be no harm in counterfeiting them, and there is no good reason why Payton should not enlarge his factory.—Salt Lake Tribune.

The Mormons are constantly adding new recruits to their ranks. On Wednesday 387 converts arrived at New York from Europe. The cry of "The Chinese must go" may ere long be changed to "The Mormons must not come."

Parnell was arrested at Morrison's Hotel, in Dublin, an old time hostelry, made famous by frequent mention in Charles Lever's novels.

$10 gets a good Silver Watch at Uncle Harris', 221 Kearny street, between Bush and Sutter, San Francisco.
